County Insurance Carrier To Pay $3,000,000 Settlement

None of the estimated $3,000,000 awarded to the five children who survived the August 3, 1985 auto accident involving Cynthia Maher and a Crawford Co. Sheriff Dept. officer will be paid from the Crawford County General Fund.

County Treasurer, Joe Wakeley, said that the total settlement will be paid by the County's insurance carrier, the Michigan Municipal Risk Management Authority.

The settlement was the result of a lawsuit filed on behalf of the five children.

Mrs. Maher was killed in the accident and five children in her car suffered injuries.

2 Grayling Men Arrested for B & E's

In a joint effort between the Crawford County Sheriff Department and the Grayling City Police Department, two male suspects were arrested in connection with seven breaking and enterings in Crawford County.

The arrests took place at about 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 12, during the search of a Grayling Township residence. Officers seized property believed to have been stolen in seven different robberies. The property has an estimated value of several thousands of dollars.

The Sheriff Department anticipates that additional warrants will be issued within the next week for suspects who are still at large.

These arrested conclude a Crawford County Sheriff Department investigation that has been ongoing for several months.

B & E Suspect Caught

Local police officers apprehended a breaking and entering suspect on March 11, after he had eluded the police for several weeks.

Crawford County Sheriff deputies and Grayling City officers received a tip at about noon on Friday, that the suspect was hiding out in a Grayling residence. When police officers arrived, they arrested the suspect on a charge of breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling. He is lodged in the Crawford County Jail.

With this arrest, the joint departments believe they will be able to close the cases of several residential breaking and enterings and one B & E involving a Grayling business.

Fire Destroys House In Karen Woods Area

Fire completely destroyed a house on Old Lake Road, in the Karen Woods subdivision, Monday evening, March 6th. The fire was spotted at about 9:30 by an unidentified person who noticed the flames while passing the house. The person notified the Bunker household, across the street, who then notified the Grayling Fire Department and the Crawford County Sheriff Department.

Grayling Fire Chief, Russ Strohpaul, said that when the fire department arrived at the scene, fire had engulfed the kitchen, living and dining areas, and was shooting out the windows in the front of the house. Firemen were at the scene until 3:30 a.m.

The residents of the house, Al Leng, Jr. and Gayle Ashton were not at home when the fire broke out. A dog, confined inside the house, was killed. The house was owned by Michael Lee of Grayling.

Strohpaul said that an electrical short caused by overlapping electrical heat tapes started the fire.

County Jail To Charge Inmates Room, Board

By Irene Pettyjohn

The free ride is over. Beginning March 1st prisoners in the Crawford County Jail will be charged for their room and board expenses.

Jail administrator, Michael Johnson, explained that in 1984 the Michigan legislature passed Public Act 118, allowing counties to charge prisoners room and board, up to $30 per day. The law also provides assistance in the debt collection process.

Johnson said that in 1982 under Public Act 16 counties were given the right to collect all medical expenses incurred by prisoners while incarcerated, but because it did not provide any legal means for collection, counties were powerless when prisoners refused to pay.

Under the new law, prisoners who do not reimburse the county, will be taken to civil court. If a judge rules in favor of the county, the county will use whatever legal means are available, including garnishment of wages, to collect room and board payments.

"Coming to jail is no longer a free ride," said Johnson. In the past, he said, people preferred going to jail to some alternatives, because it offered a free bed and three meals a day. Now, said Johnson, maybe paying the child support or whatever the alternative is, will not look so bad.

After researching programs from several different counties charging room and board, Johnson used the Grand Traverse County concept as a guide for the development of the Crawford County program. He said that he took the average income of Crawford County prisoners and decided that $7.00 for non-working prisoners and $10 for prisoners participating in the work-release program was a reasonable fee for this area. All prisoners will be charged a $25 first day fee to cover processing expenses. Johnson said that prisoners financially unable to pay will be exempt from the program.

Prisoners refusing to sign the forms agreeing to pay the room and board expenses and authorizing Johnson to deduct these payments from their accounts will not be eligible for reduction of their sentences.

Prisoners will be charged their total medical expenses as they occur. Room and board expenses can only be charged after a prisoner has been sentenced. The bill will include all pre-trial incarceration time. Prisoners found innocent will not be charged pre-trial room and board.

Room and board payments will be waived for prisoners working on public works programs such as a jail trustee and the summer environmental clean-up program.

If a prisoner owes room and board at the time of release, the jail administrator and the prisoner will work together to establish an affordable payment schedule.

Johnson said that the room and board program is going to be run like a business. If reimbursement payments become delinquent (three months without a payment), they will be turned over to the civil court.

"At $20 per month, it is going to take a long time to get the money," Johnson said, "but we are still ahead of the game, because we are getting something back. In the past," he said, "operation of the jail was only an expense to the county."

Shelter's Extra Hours Saving Dogs and Cats

By Irene Pettyjohn

Staying open longer is saving dogs and cats at the Crawford County Animal Shelter.

Animal Control Officer, Marge Mathew, and her assistant, Dixie Lobsinger, said that in 1987 the county shelter placed approximately 44 percent of the stray dogs and cats either picked up by the shelter staff, or brought to the shelter by residents. This placement increased to an impressive 67 percent in 1988, and has risen to 76 percent for the first two months of 1989.

Mathew and Lobsinger attribute the increase in placements to the shelter's extended business hours. Since May 1, 1988, the two officers have been opening the shelter's gates when they arrive in the morning to feed the animals and clean the building and pens. If people came to inquire about a pet during this time Mathew and Lobsinger stopped and helped them.

Lobsinger said that she and Mathew were surprised how many people "just dropped in" because the gate was open. They were also pleased to see the animals going to new homes, sometimes nearly as fast as the shelter received them.

"It makes sense," said Lobsinger, "we cannot place animals with people, if there is no one at the shelter."

Lobsinger said that since she was already at the shelter, and people were coming as much in the morning as during the 1-3 p.m. actual business hours, she began staying after the morning chores were completed. Lobsinger, a part-time County employee, has been working without pay for many of the hours she spends at the shelter.

The increase in placements provide several benefits to the County. Lobsinger said that revenues from the $5.00 donation asked by the shelter for each animal it places or receives has increased from $306 in 1980 to $1,042 in 1988. Total revenues to the Crawford County general fund (donations and license fees) in 1988 were more than $4,000.

The animal shelter also provides a place for individuals and families to adopt a pet for a nominal fee. Sort of a pet recycling center. The more pets the shelter can place in new homes, said Lobsinger, the fewer animals they have to destroy.

Animal Placement

Besides placing dogs, cats and an occasional goat, with local residents, animals from the Crawford County Animal Shelter have been adopted by people in Saginaw, Rogers City, Mackinaw City, and one Grayling cat now lives in Indianapolis. These long distant placements occur because the County shelter receives many telephone calls each year from people looking for a specific breed of cat or dog. The shelter staff records these calls, and if they receive an animal fitting the description of these animals, the shelter calls the individual. Lobsinger said that one woman from Mackinaw City called looking for a terrier. When the shelter got one, they called to see if she still wanted one. The woman drove to Grayling the following day in a snow storm to look at the dog. After paying the required shelter fees, the woman took the dog home. She was so happy with her new companion, that several weeks later she sent the shelter a second donation.

The $28 shelter fee for a female dog over four months includes the shelter donation, a certificate for a rabies vaccine, and a dog license. The fee for male dogs over four months is $24, and the fee for cats is a $5.00 donation.

Leader Dogs

In 1988 the shelter began sending dogs to Leader Dog School in Rochester. Last year the shelter sent 11 dogs, and 7 went on to leader dog training. On Wednesday, March 1, the shelter sent six more dogs to Rochester. Two of the

GMS Band Rated Superior at Districts

RECEIVES I RATING — The Grayling Middle School Band received all I ratings at the District Festival. They earn the right to advance to the State Festival.

The judges were unanimous in their ratings. All four adjudicators at the Middle School District Two Band Festival on March 11 awarded the Grayling Middle School Band A's — an overall rating of I, the highest a band can receive.

Their comments included: "An excellent band!" "Nice performance today!" "You have a good start. Now build on this to reach the top!" "Nice appearing group!" "Playing is excellent — first rate!"

The Middle School Band's I ranking now qualifies the group to perform at the state festival on May 8. "We have some detail work to practice on," said director Dennis Ormsbee, "but this group of students has been improving and working hard for this great day in their lives."

He continued, "What a super feeling when the scores are put on the tally board and the weeks of preparation pay off with superior ratings! It's quite a sight — the screams, tears and smiles of joy — as what you did pleased the judges."

This is the third year in a row that the Middle School Band has scored a I rating at the district festival. "What a great day for Grayling! Now on to State!" concluded Ormsbee.

dogs were from the Roscommon County Shelter, one was from the Otsego Shelter, one was donated by a local resident, and two came from the Crawford County Animal Shelter. Debbie Robinson is the Leader Dog School representative in Grayling. Anyone with questions regarding the Rochester facility, or have dogs to donate to the program can reach Robinson by calling, 348-2808.

Lobsinger said that the shelter sells about 100 dogs and cats each year to a licensed pet supplier. This pet supplier pays the shelter's standard fees.

Selection Important

The Crawford County Animal Shelter reserves the right to refuse placement with anyone, and posts a sign stating this fact in the shelter office. Lobsinger said that the shelter staff tries to help prospective pet owners select an animal that will accommodate their needs and expectations. She said that they encourage families with small children to select a dog or cat that has grown out of the puppy and kitten stages. Puppies and kittens tend to scratch and chew during play, which can be hurtful to small children who do not understand the nature of animal play. She also pointed out that small children can, without meaning to, injure small animals.

The shelter's staff works diligently to insure that each placement from the County shelter is a positive experience for both the pet and the new owners. Lobsinger said that whenever an older animal is adopted, the shelter tries to contact the new owners several days following the placement to see how the bonding process is progressing. New owners are always encouraged to bring an animal back if it becomes sick immediately following placement.

These policies have been established to secure and retain the shelter's excellent reputation. Word-of-mouth is the best form of advertising, and the Crawford County Animal Shelter relies on customer satisfaction to guarantee future placements. The shelter also benefits from the weekly pet photo that appears in the Crawford County Avalanche. Lobsinger said that every animal that was featured in 1988 was placed into a home.

The Crawford County Animal Shelter is located on M-72 East between the County Road Commission's barn and the Eagles Club. The shelter's regular business hours are Monday through Friday from 1-3 p.m., and on weekends from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Kirkum Receives Regional Concerned Citizen Award

Angela Kirkum of 810 Plum in Grayling received the Concerned Citizen Award for the Northern Lower Michigan region from Citizens Insurance Company at a luncheon held on Wednesday, March 9 at the Sylvan Resort in Gaylord. Ms. Kirkum was presented with a wall clock and weather station, customized especially for the Concerned Citizens Award.

Ms. Kirkum is one of five regional recipients of the 1988 "Concerned Citizen of the Year" award on a statewide level. The Concerned Citizen and "Concerned Neighbor of the Year" awards will be announced in conjunction with Senior Power Day in Lansing on May 16. The two statewide award-winners will also receive a one-week, trip-for-two to Hawaii from Citizens.

Ms. Kirkum is 89 years old and still very active in the local community where she has lived since 1975. She is involved in volunteer work at an elementary school, her church, an extended care facility, hospital and the senior center. She is a member of the RSVP and AARP, organizations for retired persons.

She is an active member of the Ladies Auxiliary at Grayling Mercy Hospital where she still works two days a week. Angela helps with patients in the Grayling Extended Care Facility. As a member of St. Mary's Catholic Women's Club, she has helped with many social and fund-raising projects for the church. She has also worked at fish fries held by the Knights of Columbus.

Angela also belongs to the Grayling Lioness Club where she is one of their best sellers of raffle tickets. She talked the club into having a formal car wash as a fund-raiser. Dressed in formals, all of the ladies washed cars to earn money for the local community and state Lioness programs.

"Angela is a real inspiration to all who know her," said Marie Praise of Grayling who nominated her for the Concerned Citizen Award in 1988.

For fun, she participates in the Songbirds of Grayling, the Grayling Seniors Kitchen Band, Grayling Seniors Dance Group and history class at the senior center.

The Concerned Citizens Award program was conducted by Citizens Insurance Company for the first time in 1988. The company plans to conduct the award program annually, according to Roy Westran, president of Citizens. Nominations are now being accepted for the Concerned Citizen and Concerned Neighbor awards in 1989.

Guest Column

(Appearing below are parts of a column written by Senator Jack Welborn. The column was submitted by a staff member at Camp Lehigh.)

Thanks For The Good Ones

By Senator Jack Welborn

Recently I went to the basement to bring up a few potatoes for Dorothy to cook, and I noticed there were a few bad ones. I sorted through and threw out the bad ones, before they had the opportunity to spoil others. A few days after sorting the potatoes, an incident occurred within the Department of Corrections that reminded me of my potato-sorting policy. A high ranking official in the Department of Corrections was indicted for allegedly accepting a bribe to change the classification of a prisoner.

I along with others have worked so long to make changes in the Department of Corrections, and I hated to see these problems, but I knew what they were there and that they had to be dealt with. Just like my potatoes, we can't allow the rot to spread; we have to sort out the bad ones. The important thing is that our system in America is working, and I commend both the federal investigators and the State Police for following through on the investigation they started months before.

I made a special effort two days after the indictment to take a tour of the State Prison of Southern Michigan. I reflected about how things were in the past. There have been tremendous changes on the inside, physical improvements as well as control and discipline improvements. For the first time in the last three years, I was able to walk through the cell block where Jack Budd was killed and hear myself think.

I was impressed with the job the staff was doing, despite the fact that their morale was down because they felt deserted and double crossed by one of their leaders. They were working hard to do their job, because that's what they are trained for and what we as taxpayers pay them to do. They are true professionals.

The changes at Jackson are too numerous to outline, and I admit to a certain sense of pride as I went through the prison seeing the implementation of recommendations that I along with other members of our committee had suggested.

Obviously, there are still problems on the inside of the prisons. We still have stabbings. We still have drugs going in. We still have too many weapons being made, and we still have some rotten potatoes that need to be culled out. When I think about the tremendous expansion of the Department of Corrections in the last three years in both staff and inmates, but at the same time I see the control being taken away from the inmates and returned to the corrections officers, I recognize that it's been quite a revolution...but we're winning the war.

The changes haven't been fast enough nor gone far enough to suit me. Three years ago when I became chairman of the corrections committee I wanted a 180 degree change. I wanted more safety, discipline, and control put back into the prisons. We haven't got the 180 degree changes yet, but we have passed 90 degrees and we're still moving in the right direction - that's a big improvement.

As others are condemning the corrections system today, I want to take my hat off and commend the corrections officers, sergeants, wardens and other staff who on a daily basis go inside and do the best job physically and humanly possible to incarcerate and keep in prison some of the toughest, hardest criminals in the world.

We on the outside in the "free world" thank God for those who are willing to take the abuse and ridicule of the prisoners on the inside, and the abuse and criticism of some of their own friends and neighbors, just because they happen to be in the same "bushel of potatoes" that has a few rotten ones in it.

Politically I could have a heyday on this issue. The problem is that in doing so I'd be condemning the many good potatoes along with the few rotten ones. The investigation by the F.B.I. and the State Police needs to continue, but most important we need to give thanks for the good ones who are willing to go into the prisons to protect us from the worst of the worst.

Property Tax Credit Available for Residents

The Homestead Property Tax Credit has been available since 1973. However, many taxpayers are still unaware of this program. The Michigan Tax Information Council is providing an easy to understand review of the qualifications and filing procedures for this state tax credit.

The Homestead Property Tax Credit is given by the State of Michigan to reduce the percentage of income residents pay in property taxes. It is available to homeowners, seniors, and renters. Any person who is a Michigan resident for at least six months of the year for which credit is claimed, and owned and/or rented or leased a Michigan homestead where the landlord pays either property tax or a service fee, is entitled to the property tax credit.

Homeowners are allowed a credit equal to 60% of the amount by which their property tax bill exceeds 3.5% of the total household income. For example: if your property taxes exceed 3.5% of your income by $100, the State will refund $60.

For renters, the Homestead Property Tax Credit assumes that 17% of your rent was used by your landlord for property tax payments. The State refunds 60% of that amount which exceeds 3.5% of their income.

Senior citizens, paraplegics and quadriplegics receive a credit equal to 100% of the amount that exceeds 3.5% of their income.

Claimants who receive Aid to Dependent Children (ADC), any child support payments which are included in the ADC benefits, and/or General Assistance (GA) benefits must prorate the property tax or rent credit by that percentage of household income not attributable to ADC or GA.

For all claimants that qualify, file MI-1040CR or MI-1040CR-2. The maximum allowable credit is $1,200.00, even if the credit formula used resulted in a credit which exceeded this amount. For claimants whose household income exceeds $73,650.00, the credit of $1,200.00 or less must further be reduced by 10% for each $1,000.00 or portion of $1,000.00 over $73,650.00. No homestead credit is allowed for incomes over $83,650.00.

Homeowners example:

Property Tax Bill, $2,450, Household Income $30,000, Amount Not Refundable 3.5% (.035) x $30,000 = $1,050, Base For Refund (tax bill minus amount not refundable) = $1,400, 60% of Base (.6 x base) = Refund $840.

Renter's example: Annual Rent: $3,000, Equivalent Property Tax (17% x $3,000) $510, Household Income $10,000, Amount Not Refundable 3.5% (.035) x $10,000 = $350, 60% (property tax minus amount not refundable) .6 x ($510-$350) = Refund $96.

'Public service' is still alive

THE RECENT NATIONAL hassle over raising pay for congressmen, judges and other public officials failed to heap many hosannas upon those who occupy places of public trust.

Part of the reason for the outbreak of voter disdain was the size of the federal raise proposed — a whopping 51 percent. Another was the way the raise was handled, and the possibility of sneaking it into being without a vote by congress.

As a result, many citizens wondered whatever happened to the concept of public service? Were there any public office holders around who served for any reason other than money?

The answer, of course, is yes. There are plenty of public servants around of exactly that type, although probably not nearly enough.

WHAT PROMPTS these thoughts is the recent death of Dorothy Leonard Judd at age 90 in Grand Rapids. Dorothy Judd epitomized the concept of "public service."

A teacher by vocation, Mrs. Judd worked a lifetime to make government better. Usually her jobs were not compensated, but she worked all the harder anyway.

She helped found the League of Women Voters, became an expert on government employment and the merit system, served as an elected delegate to Michigan's Constitutional Convention in 1960-61, was a member of the Michigan Civil Service Commission (where I had the privilege of serving with her) in 1963-69, and held many other public roles.

She was always fair, objective, open-minded but decisive. Here's what she wrote at one point about her philosophy of public service:

"Seldom can one 'point with pride' to the tangible achievements. But there are other rewards, even in defeat. There is the exhilaration of freedom to serve in the public interest, the right of each person in our American democracy to try to affect public affairs without oppression."

Sound like a civics teacher? Well, Dorothy Judd was a civics teacher. But she also lived that way. She practiced what she preached.

THE OTHER KIND — Then there are the other kind, and Federal District Judge Carl Rubin in Ohio may be one of those.

Judge Rubin was naturally disappointed when Congress rejected the pay raise, and his pay of $89,500 was not raised to $135,000 a year. At 69, Judge Rubin has been on the bench for 17 years, starting at $40,000 a year.

"I'm not going to take this lying down. I believe I have been dealt with unfairly," Judge Rubin told the Cincinnati Enquirer.

So he's going on a slow down, Judge Rubin said he will limit his case load to two civil trials a month, and that he will work only an average of 20 hours a week so his compensation will work out to $100 an hour.

"I'm not required to be a particularly speedy judge," the judge said. "I'm going to be an average judge. If I'm being paid in that fashion, I'll work in that fashion. This is the only way I have to protest."

"I've given all my time, all of my energy and all of my ideas to this job, and I'm not being paid what I was when I started," he said. "It gradually dawned on me that nobody gives a damn."

He said he wouldn't quit and go into private law practice because "federal judgeships ought to be a lifetime commitment."

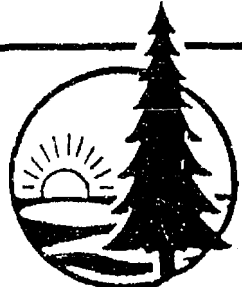

Well, I can think of one other way Judge Rubin could protest.

He could hold his breath, either until he turns blue or until he gets a raise, whichever comes sooner.

That sort of protest seems to be right up his alley.

When we were all younger, it seems as if there was always some kind hearted person around who could take in a homeless stray dog or cat. Sometimes it was a relative, sometimes a neighbor, or a friend. Whoever it was, everything usually ended well with the stray finding a good home.

In 1989, things have changed. Many of those kind-hearted persons already have taken in several homeless pets and there's just not much room left at the inn.

Thank goodness that Crawford County has one of the better animals shelters around.

Somewhat they're currently finding homes for 76 percent of the animals picked up or brought in. I've seen shelters that place fewer than 10 percent of the animals that come in. If you're not impressed by Crawford County's high placement percentage, perhaps you should look at it another way. Every animal that doesn't find a new home usually is put to sleep after a couple of weeks at the shelter. So every percentage point means a better chance to live for dogs and cats in this county.

At some animal shelters throughout this state, the animal control officers shrug their shoulders, blame the high dog and cat populations, and put a lot of animals to sleep.

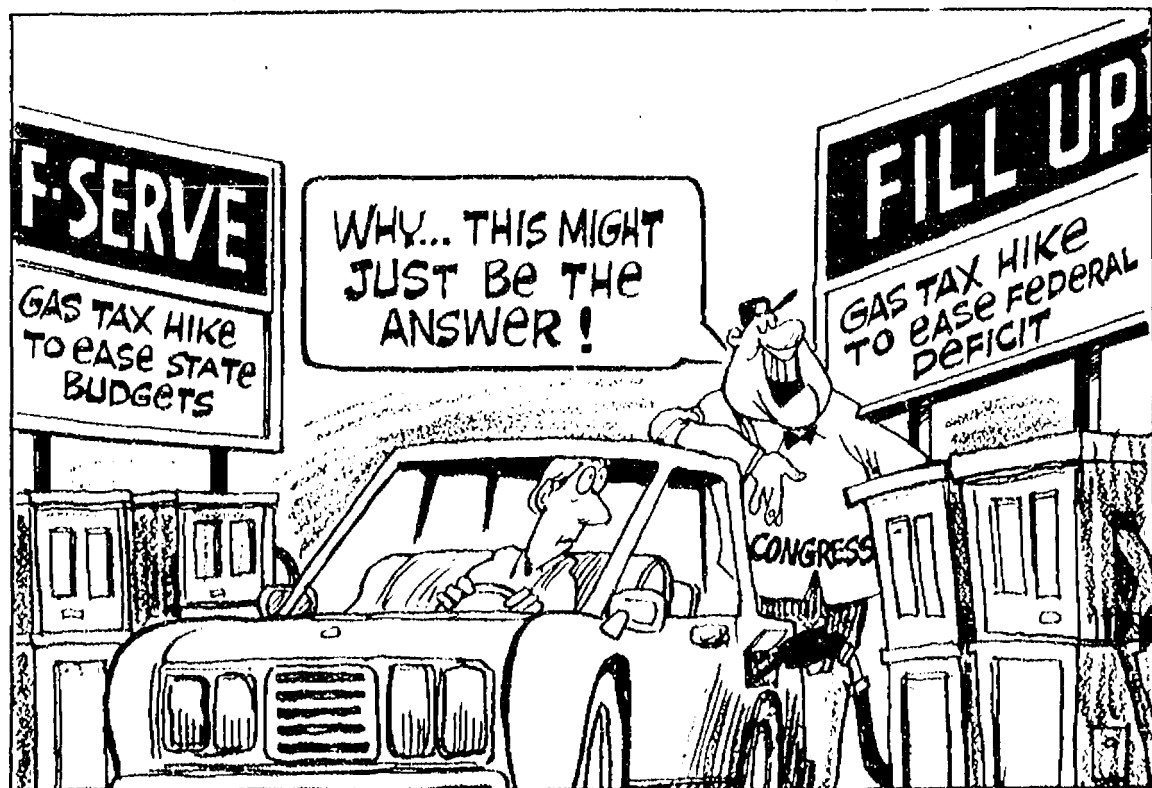

In Crawford County, the extra effort by our animal control officers has saved hundreds of animals (See page 1).

These officers have volunteered extra hours and gone out of their way to find homes for animals. They also had the idea for the weekly pet photo that appears on page 5 of the Avalanche. Last year, every pet featured in the Avalanche found a new home.

These same officers, who are doing a great job, now feel more building space is needed at the shelter for the animals. With money tight at the county, they're going to try to raise funds through donations.

You have to feel anyone doing a job this well deserves some of our help. If you have 7 extra dollars, give that. If you have 12 extra dollars, give that. If you have a lot of money to give, part of the new equipment or building could be fitted with a small plaque honoring your contribution. Any amount at all will help. Even if your home is full of animals, this is one way you can help save another cat or dog here.

You can send donations to The County of Crawford, Grayling, MI, 49738. Checks have to be made out to Crawford County but you have to stipulate somewhere the money is to be used for the animal shelter.

March 17, 1966

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kessler of Midland have a new baby daughter, Maureen Kay, born March 6. She weighed in at 7½ pounds. The Jens Ziebell and Jerome Kesslers are the young lady's grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Siniff (Maryann) of Saginaw spent the weekend of the 5th with her parents, the Barney Engels.

Drs. Arnold and Kurt Rotermund of Breckenridge and Detroit respectively, were at their lake home Thursday, and tried out the skiing at Boyne Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kraus drove to Lansing Sunday the 6th and took a plane from there to Las Vegas, N. Mexico. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Longworth for a few days of vacation. The Krauses and the Burnses returned home Friday. The Longworths plan to visit friends in Arizona before returning home the latter part of the month.

Miss Linda Knibbs spent the weekend in Mt. Pleasant where she attended the R.O.T.C. Military Ball with Randy Thompson and was an overnight guest of Miss Pixie Edwards.

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Allison were driven to Traverse City Saturday by their daughter Caroline and there took a plane planning to fly to Phoenix, Ariz. They were to join the Dr. J.F. Cooks in Phoenix and spend three weeks on vacation, and all will drive back home early in April.

Grayling's Green Wave basketball team advanced to the finals in the Area Tournament at Gaylord when they eliminated a small, scrappy Onaway quintet 51-30 last Friday. Saturday, March 20th, the Green Wave will meet Mancelona for the Class C Championship.

Mrs. Edgar Caid and daughter Margie of Lovells spent Sunday in West Branch with relatives.

Mrs. Gordon Pond left Saturday for Detroit to visit her brother, Robert Woods before he left for the Army.

Mrs. Elrey Waite returned Saturday from Gladwin where she has been for the past month visiting at the home of her son Ray Waite. She reports the birth of an 8½ pound son Carl Wayne to Mr. and Mrs. Waite on February 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephan of Detroit have been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stephan.

Miss Odie Sheehy and Mrs. R.J. Sheehy gave a surprise birthday dinner Monday evening honoring Mrs. Wilfred Laurant whose anniversary was the following day. Covers were laid for fourteen. Green crepe paper shamrocks and bows were used for decoration and centering the dining table was a huge bowl of sweet peas guarded by green tapers.

Mrs. George Stanley returned Friday of last week from Vassar where she has been visiting her parents for two weeks.

Easter Eggs Require Proper Storage

By Gail Edwards, EHE Cooperative Ext. Service

Along with spring comes Easter and all of the festivities and decorations associated with the holiday. Beautifully decorated eggs are one popular custom enjoyed by many different ethnic groups. Some customs call for draining the egg from the shell and decorating the empty shell. Another way is to hard-cook the eggs first and then decorate the shells.

If you decorate hard cooked eggs, you need to follow a few simple rules so that your product will be cooked and stored properly and can be safely eaten.

Keep it Clean!
 Before cooking the eggs, wash your hands. Make sure your counter tops and cooking utensils are clean. Handle the eggs, raw or cooked, as little as possible to prevent contamination through the shell.

Cook it right!
 Put the raw eggs in a pot of cold water. Heat the eggs over medium heat until the water boils. Immediately reduce the heat and simmer for 20 minutes. Never boil.

Air-cool the eggs in their shells in an open container in the refrigerator. Water cooling is not recommended because of the possibility that germs in the water could penetrate the eggshells.

Decorate according to custom

After the eggs are cooked and cooled, you can decorate them with pure food coloring or dyes formulated with food grade colorants.

Store carefully
 Store the eggs according to the following guidelines:

— Non-decorated hard-cooked eggs should be stored in the refrigerator immediately after cooking and consumed within 7 days. Do not eat them if they were left out of the refrigerator for more than two hours.

— Decorated hard-cooked eggs should be stored in the refrigerator before decorating, after decorating and after the Easter egg hunt. Decorated eggs should be eaten within two or three days and only if they were out of the refrigerator a total of two hours or less for coloring, hunting and displaying.

— Discard any cracked hard-cooked eggs.

— If the two-hour time limit is a problem, you may want to color two sets of eggs - one for eating and one for displaying. Be sure to label each set clearly.

Former GHS Instructor Appears in Eliot Anthology

Last month the Wyndham Hall Press of Indiana published an anthology entitled Celebrating T.S. Eliot. The work is in honor of the centennial of the birth of Eliot, who was born in 1888. It is a special tribute to the poet and playwright, respected and loved in both America and the British Isles.

An original poem by Carl Minor of Grand Marais is included in the anthology. It is entitled "Evolution."

In 1976, Minor was the only Upper Peninsula poet to have his poetry included in the anthology honoring the bicentennial of the United States. His work has also been included in the anthology, "Best-Loved Contemporary Poems," as well as 16 anthologies published by the National Poetry Association. In 1983, Minor received the Writer of the Year Award for the Upper Peninsula.

Minor is a charter member of the Michigan Association of School Psychologists and taught school for 35 years before retirement. He taught English and speech at Grayling in the late 60's. He at times still does substitute teaching in the Newberry School system from which he graduated. Minor's poem follows:

Evolution
The unmoored raft,
Drifting with the tide,
Rises and falls, unfettered,
On the distant horizon;
Now pausing momentarily,
As in a stagnant pool;
Turning, regressing
With the receding backwash;
Then rushing headlong to new heights,
Always a constant state of flux,

Ever traveling onward,
Forever moving forward.

So too in human life there is a rhythm,
A natural rise and fall,
Not in a straight, unwavering line,
But in an undulating curve,
With varied and continuous changes;
Islands of stagnation,
Whirlpools of unexpected retrogression,
Succeeded by vast ages of hopeful progress;
And through all there gleams
A connecting growth,
A continuity, a progression

From the lowest things created
To the highest forms related.

—Carl B.J. Minor

GHS Spring Spirit Week

The Grayling High School Student Council sponsored its own form of March Madness in the form of Spring Spirit Week, held March 6-10.

On Monday, "Top 40," a multi-media motivational presentation on the subject of self-esteem, was shown to the entire student body in cooperation with the local SADD chapter.

Tuesday was designated as Dress-Up Day, Wednesday as Hats and Shades Day, Thursday as Twin Day (dress the same as a friend), and Friday as Outdoor Clothes Day.

Wednesday was Pizza Day in the cafeteria. Students could pre-order Pizza Hut personal pan pizzas as a change from normal lunchtime fare. Thursday was Ice Cream Day. Chocolate and strawberry sundaes were served, compliments of Student Council, to all students and staff.

On Friday, the weather cooperated perfectly for an Outdoor Assembly to close out the week's activities. Three competitions were held on the practice football field behind the school: dog (actually student) sled races, snow volleyball games and snowman building.

46th Circuit Court

Appearing before the Hon. William A. Porter Monday, March 6, 1989:

John Wayne Bogaert, age 50, of Grayling, was arraigned on a charge of Assault With Intent To Murder. He faces a maximum penalty of Life in Prison if convicted. He was also arraigned on a charge of Felony Firearm and faces a penalty of up to 2 years in prison which would be served consecutively with and preceding any term of imprisonment on the Assault With Intent To Murder charge.

Bogaert was arrested by the Grayling City Police Department February 12, 1989 following a complaint of a man with a gun in the lobby of the Chief Shoppenagons Hotel.

Michael Leon Hines, age 18, of Detroit, was arraigned on a charge of Bringing Contraband Into A Prison. He faces a maximum penalty of 5 Years in prison and/or a fine of up to $1,000 if convicted.

Hines was arrested by the Michigan State Police January 2, 1989 on a complaint from Camp Lehman.

Michael Lee Brookbank, age 23, of Grayling, plead guilty to 2 charges of Breaking and Entering a Building With Intent of Larceny. He faces a maximum penalty of 10 Years in prison on each charge.

Brookbank was arrested by the Crawford County Sheriff Department September 29, 1988 following an investigation of Breaking and Entering in Grayling Township.

Keith Edward Rugg, age 28, of Frederic, was sentenced on a charge of Attempted Resisting and Opposing a Police Officer. He received 24 Months Probation, 30 days in the County Jail with 2 days credit, $400 costs and $550 attorney fees.

Rugg was arrested by the Crawford County Sheriff Department in October, 1988.

Going For The Gold

Grayling native Brett Stockton reported to the Olympic training camp in Melbourne, Fla., on Feb. 26 to train in Kayak racing until May 1st. Then he will aim to compete in the Olympic Sports Festival Trials, European Team Trials, Olympic Sports Festival, and National Kayak Championship, all during the summer of 1989.

Although the 1992 Olympics are 3 years away, the road to the gold is a long one for Stockton and other hopefuls.

America is one of the few countries which doesn't subsidize its Olympic athletes. Stockton and others rely on contributions, mainly from their hometown areas.

You can help Brett represent the U.S. by sending a donation, even small amounts are appreciated, to the

Vikings Miss District Title

The girls Varsity volleyball team lost their bid to bring home the District Championship when they lost to Rogers City Wednesday night, 3-15 and 3-15.

Grayling earned the right to advance to championship play by defeating Benzle Central two weeks ago in a pre-district match, 15-3 and 15-4. On Tuesday, March 7th, Grayling travelled to Harbor Springs and beat Elk Rapids, 15-13 and 15-5. The following night they returned to Harbor Springs and defeated Lake City 15-12 and 15-4, advancing them to the final match against Rogers City. This match was played immediately following their Lake City victory.

Coach Becky Brown said that everyone played hard throughout the tournaments and wanted to win the championship.

"It just was not Grayling's night to excel," Brown said, "or Rogers City's night to play poorly. Rogers City deserves to go on to regional play."

In the Lake City and Rogers City matches Sheryl Klinger led serves with 15. Deanna Phelps had 11 serves, Lisa Kimball and Janice LaDuke had 8 each, Heather Stephenson 7, Patti Tremblay 5, and Margarita Perez 4.

Klinger led setters with 54.

Stephenson and Tremblay were tough at the net. Brown said they were responsible for getting Grayling back in the game with Lake City when they were down 2-7 in the first game. Tremblay's hits were so hard, said Brown, that they powered through a double block.

Tremblay led attacks with 22 spikes and 6 tips. Stephenson had 18 spikes and 5 tips, Phelps 6 spikes and 7 tips, LaDuke 7 spikes, Klinger 5 spikes and 2 tips, and Kimball 3 spikes.

Phelps and Stephenson led blocking with 12 each. Tremblay had 4, Klinger 3, and LaDuke 1.

On Tuesday, Grayling was down 0-9 in their first game with Elk Rapids and came back to win, 15-13. Grayling was strong in the second game, winning 15-5.

Stephenson led serves with 10. LaDuke had 9, Klinger 8, Tremblay 6, and Kimball and Phelps each had 4.

Coach Brown said that Klinger had an excellent evening, setting 46 for 46.

Tremblay was the leading offensive player with 16 spikes. LaDuke had 10 spikes and 3 tips, Phelps 5 spikes and 5 tips, Stephenson 4 spikes and 3 tips, and Klinger had 4 spikes and 2 tips.

Tremblay, Phelps and Stephenson were all strong defensively.

Seniors playing their last season are: Cheryl Barber, Lisa Kimball, Sheryl Klinger, Janice LaDuke, Deanna Phelps and Patti Tremblay.

Assisting Brown this season were Dave Edwall and Tim Zigila. Edwall, a former collegiate player, was a technical advisor and teacher. Zigila provided practice aggressiveness and enthusiasm.

Ojala Makes AAU Team

For the first time, northern Michigan will be participating in AAU competition for Girl's Basketball. Of the 5 age brackets, the 16-year-old division will be played in the Grayling High School gym March 18 beginning at 8:00 a.m.

It's a double elimination tournament that should conclude around 9:00 p.m. that same day. The winner will advance to Sandusky, Ohio. There will be five teams from different parts of the state competing in Grayling.

Howard Lehti was selected to coach the Northern team. Twelve girls from the North were selected from a field of 25 candidates. Melanie

Ojala, from Grayling, made the select team. Coach Lehti indicated his team has four All Conference and three honorable mentions players. "It has been a pleasure working with this team for 2 months. The team has a nice balance with four six-footers and eight guards that can control the tempo of the game."

17 Wrestlers Win Medals

Twenty-four Middle School Wrestling team members traveled to Charlevoix on Saturday and 17 returned with medals. A total of ten teams from northern Michigan competed in the tournament.

First place medal winners were Scott Ramsey, Jason Secord, Sam Mack, David Wildfong, Tom Schweizer, and Mark Robideau. Placing second were Dan Jurkovich, Eric Dickie, Greg Dorman, Brian Robinson and Mike Harris. Finishing third were Doug Wendling and Chad Gorman. Fourth places went to Tom Oberg, Kenny Kent, Al Ledesma and Eric Poll.

Next Saturday the team ends the season in Cheboygan with another ten team tournament.

Shoot-A-Thon Raises $370

A Shoot-a-thon, sponsored by Varsity and J.V. basketball players, raised $370 for the Grayling High School basketball program. Players solicited pledges of varying amounts, to be paid for each successful free throw, up to 100 baskets.

The contest was held on February 21st in the high school gym.

Scott Nicholas shot the highest percentage (94%) of both Varsity and J.V. players and won an official "NBA

All Star" gym bag, donated by Judge Emil Kraus.

Kraig Hudson shot the highest percentage (89%) of the Varsity players.

Chad Bonamie shot 74 percent, and earned the most money among the Varsity players, $51.00. Karl Mead shot 78 percent, and earned the most money of the J.V. players, $45.78.

The proceeds from the Shoot-a-thon purchased practice jerseys for the J.V. basketball team.

8th Grade Team Wins Basketball Tournament

The Grayling Middle School 8th grade boys' basketball team completed a successful year by capturing first place in a tournament held in Gaylord. The team was composed of 17 players and was coached by Howard Lehti and Mike Shearer. Coach Lehti said this was one of the best teams he has coached over the last seven years and should be a strong high school team. The team has a nice balance of speed to go with the height.

This was the last year of coaching middle school basketball for Coaches Lehti and Shearer. In addition to stressing fundamentals, their teams won 102 games and lost 45 while capturing 3 first place tournaments.

Forensics Team Faces 33 Schools

The Grayling High School Forensics Team competed in its most difficult tournament of the season, the Frankenmuth High School Invitational, on February 25, against 33 teams from all over the state.

Senior Lori Dean, a four year veteran of the GHS team, won 6th place in Storytelling in a field of 42 competitors. The Duo Interpretation Team of sophomores Candy Grigsby and Andrea McLaughlin qualified for Semifinals.

Forensics is a public speaking and oral interpretation competition which offers 14 different individual areas of competition. In Storytelling, for example, the participant chooses a story from children's literature, edits it to fit within a five-eight minute time frame, and prepares it for delivery as if in front of an audience of children.

In Duo Interpretation, two-person teams choose a selection from any type of literature, edit it to fit a seven-ten minute time frame, and present it to the audience. These and the other 12 areas of Forensics competition require extensive rehearsal. The GHS team has been practicing since mid-January, says coach Nancy Lemmen.

Other GHS team members who competed at Frankenmuth include: seniors Amy Jo Denton and Janet Petrosky, Duo Interpretation; seniors James Montoya and Chris Zell, Dramatic Interpretation; junior Chris Bindschattel and sophomore Sue McLaughlin, Poetry Interpretation; freshman Josh Lepsey, Extemporaneous Speaking, 9-10; and freshman Jim Ryan, Sales Speaking.

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You By Cliff Wheeler Sales Representative

See if you can answer this question...There's a man who was once voted the Most Valuable Player in the NCAA basketball tournament...and now he's a United States Senator...Who is he? Answer is Bill Bradley who was the MVP of the 1965 NCAA tourney when he played for Princeton in the Final Four that year...Today, Bradley is a U.S. Senator from New Jersey.

Surprisingly, one of sports' most famous teams has a nickname that is grammatically wrong...What team is that?...It's the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League...The usual plural of "leaf" is "leaves"-not "leafs"-so they should really be the Toronto "Maple Leaves" instead of "Maple Leafs".

Here's an oddity...There are some sports in which the ball is inbounds when it hits the sideline-and there are other sports in which the ball is out-of-bounds when it hits that line...The ball is "in" when it hits the line in baseball and tennis-and it's "out" when it hits the line in basketball and football.

I bet you didn't know...that we still have lots of cars and trucks available with rebates up to $2,000 or choose financing as low as 4.9%!! But don't wait too long! GM and Chrysler don't offer these incentives when the weather is warm and nice. Come down and see us now and save!

The last thing you need now is a problem with insurance that doesn't offer guaranteed home replacement cost coverage.

Insurance means 100% assurance, right? Wrong. Sometimes it doesn't. Although you wouldn't live in half of a home—that might be all the limits of coverage your present home insurance gives you. Auto Owners doesn't agree with that. They believe that homeowners insurance should ideally protect and replace 100% of your home. Because anything less, isn't 100% protection.

The Guaranteed Home Replacement Cost Coverage is from your "no problem" Auto-Owners agent. Ask him if your home qualifies, and find out what 100% peace-of-mind is all about.

We pay cash for car loans!

Twenty-five dollars cash! That's what you'll get from your friends at Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union just for giving us a chance to compare the loan program worked up by your new car manufacturer with a Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union new car loan!

If we cannot beat the manufacturer's deal, we'll give you twenty-five dollars just for giving us a chance to compare our loan with their offer. In fact, even if we do beat your dealer's program, we'll still pay you twenty five dollars as long as you finance your new car with us.

At Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union, our only job is to help you manage your money as efficiently as possible. And that means trying to save you money on financing as well as other financial services. We have your best interests at heart.

WURTSMITH COMMUNITY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Oscoda & Tawas & Grayling & Mio & Au Gres & Houghton Lake & Wurtsmith AFB

Here's how to pick up some quick, easy cash:

Before you make your new car purchase, bring in the loan worksheet prepared for you by your dealer. Let us compare our rates, terms—and most importantly—monthly payment amount. You just might pick up an easy twenty five dollars cash. And you just might be surprised at how much you'll save by financing through Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union.

This offer valid from March 13 - April 20, 1989.

...about your Social Security

Does your child need a Social Security number? Often a parent wants to open a savings account or buy a bond under the child's name to get an early start on saving for college. But, the law requires that a child have a Social Security number before any financial transaction is made in his or her name.

A Social Security number is also required for eligibility for some kinds of Government services.

And the law now requires a Social Security number for all dependents age 5 or older who are claimed on the Federal tax return. (Next tax year, the requirement will be for dependents age 2 and up).

Parents wishing to apply for a number for their child should complete an application form (available at Social Security and at most post offices), and submit the form to Social Security with the child's birth certificate and one other piece of identification, such as a school record, or immunization record.

Parents of newborns can now take advantage of a new service. Through an agreement between the Social Security Administration and the State of Michigan, parents can now request that a number be issued for their newborn child, all as part of the completion of the birth record at the hospital. If this method of applying for a number is used, there is no application to complete, and no documents to submit. Of course, it is completely voluntary, and like all of Social Security's services, it is free.

For more information, or to obtain a number for your child, call Social Security toll-free at 800-234-5772 (2345-SSA), from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., or leave a message at all other times. Or, contact the Traverse City office at (616) 946-8360, 9:00-4:30, Monday through Friday.

A representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month, from 10:30 until 2:00. There is no phone service at this location. Callers should use the toll-free number.

Band Plays

10 Hours Saturday

Grayling band students will perform a 10-hour "Surfin' U.S.A." Band-A-Thon Saturday, March 18, from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Middle School multipurpose room.

Freedom From Smoking Clinic Offered Here

A new Freedom From Smoking clinic program to help smokers join with others to quit their habit is being offered by Mercy Hospital/Grayling starting on March 21 and ending on May 2. An orientation session, to acquaint smokers with the program, is scheduled for Tuesday, March 21 at 5 p.m. in the private dining room at Mercy Hospital/Grayling.

"There's a lot of give-and-take in the group process, which takes the lonely element out of quitting on your own," says Bob Bochy, certified instructor in the American Lung Association (ALA) program.

Cost of the program is $45, and class size is limited to 15. Call the Community Services Office at Mercy Hospital/Grayling to register at 348-5461, ext. 193.

Zonta Club Offers $300 Scholarship

The Zonta Club of Roscommon County area is once again offering three $300 scholarships. One to a female Houghton Lake high school student, one to a female Roscommon high school student and one to a female Grayling high school student. Applications may be obtained from the high school counseling offices.

Applicants must complete the application, including two letters of recommendations, and return to: Zonta Club of Roscommon County area, Scholarship Committee, P.O. Box 735, Roscommon, MI 48863. The deadline for applying is March 25.

MILITARY

Milltown Button Contest Deadline is March 17

Artists - get out your pen and pencils and win a $50 cash prize for the winning entry for the Grayling Promotional Association's Milltown button contest. The deadline is March 17. They should be turned in to Betty Bennett, P.O. Box 299, Grayling or to Mac's Drug Store by that date.

Specifications for the drawings are:

1. A round design that could be drawn anywhere from 5" to 2 1/4" in diameter since the design can be reduced in size at the printers.
2. A line drawing; if there is to be color on it, it should be specified as it is easier for the printer to color it than copy the color.
3. Should include the words "AuSable Milltown Festival, July 28-31, 1989, Grayling, Michigan."

Rotary Club Announces Minstrel Show Dates April 14-15

The Grayling Rotary Club will hold its annual Minstrel Show on April 14 and 15 at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium.

According to Ray Lange, chairman of the event, the 13th annual show will have a very "incarcerating" theme. He refused to elaborate on that comment except to explain that further details will be released later in March.

Tickets will cost $6 per person and are available from any Rotarian.

Frederic News

W.I.F. will again hold their fifth annual Easter egg hunt at the Frederic Elementary.

A notice will be given at the schools; but please note - any preschoolers for Frederic and Maple Forest 3-5 years old - the hunt will be held Wednesday, March 22nd, at 10 a.m.

Easter Seals Need Medical Equipment

Do you have any used medical equipment around the house? Turn those items into a tax deduction by donating the equipment to the Easter Seal Society-Loan Equipment program. Currently over 44 sites are in operation and equipment is needed to upgrade and expand this program. Equipment such as wheelchairs, walkers, canes, crutches, bath benches and commodes are needed across the state. All items which cannot be used by Easter Seals will be shared with other Social Service agencies. To make arrangements for pick-up or delivery, call Cindy Kelly at 1-800-292-2729.

Wilderness Training Starts

Adults and older youth who want to learn more about wilderness activities and share that with young people can receive training through the next series of 4-H Challenge Leader Training, says Shelley Hubbard, 4-H Program Assistant.

The program trains participants in a wide variety of skills, including backpacking, canoeing, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, map and compass, four-season camping and more.

Graduates of the training series lead community 4-H Challenge clubs in these activities.

The challenge Leader Training schedule for Northern Michigan will include Orientation April 28-30, Canoeing July 14-16, Backpacking September 22-24, and Winter Camping January 28-28, 1990. Training will be held at locations in Northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Trainees also must pass written tests, possess First Aid and CPR cards, and begin involvement with a club. Once they have earned basic certification, leaders may also receive training in specialties such as climbing, caving, winter survival, and white-water canoeing.

For more information on the 4-H Challenge Program, contact the Cooperative Extension Service 348-2841 ext. 264. The registration deadline for this leader training series is April 3.

New Tax Bill Explained At PTA Meeting

The March 6th meeting of the Crawford AuSable PTA began with a short business meeting. Kent Reynolds, superintendent of schools then briefly explained the new tax bill that is before the Michigan Senate. If the new tax laws go into effect as outlined in this bill the benefits to our schools financially will be quite substantial. The added benefit is, of course, that local property taxes would then be reduced.

After a report from the various schools as to what was happening, the meeting was turned over to Dr. Stan Delidow, the guest speaker. Dr. Delidow gave an entertaining and informative talk on the various types of standardized tests that are administered to children in our schools. There will not be an April meeting of the PTA as the first Monday of April falls on a vacation day. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 1st.

Lovells News

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Clarice Nusbaum who passed away in Texas on Tuesday, March 7th. The Nusbaums were former residents of our community and have many friends who extend their deepest sympathy to the family.

Commander Lochner

Reverend Lochner Promoted To Naval Reserve Commander

The Reverend Daniel E. Lochner, pastor of Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, Grayling, was recently promoted to the rank of Commander in the United States Naval Reserve Chaplain Corps. As a Navy Chaplain, CDR Lochner has represented the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod in numerous capacities. During his 15 years as a Naval Reservist, he has completed training tours at Camp Lejeune, NC, Mayport, FL, Charleston, SC, Newport, RI, and Gulfport, MS. His most recent tour was last October when he was stationed for 17 days at the Naval Air Facility in Lajes, Portugal, a small island in the Azores.

CDR Lochner also served on Active Duty from 1982 - 1986. During that time, he was Command Chaplain aboard the amphibious assault ship USS New Orleans (LPH-11), homeported in San Diego, making several deployments to the West Pacific. Following that tour, he was on the staff of the Naval School for Health Sciences, a training facility for Hospital Corpsmen, also located in San Diego.

As a result of his ministry to the military, the Secretary of the Navy has awarded him the Navy Commendation Medal and Navy Achievement Medal. He also has been awarded the Sea Service Deployment Ribbon and the Armed Forces Reserve Medal.

CDR Lochner and his wife, Judy, are the parents of five children, and have been residents of Grayling since 1986.

The Gospel of John

Part #66

The Apostate Apostle

Our Lord after cleaning the feet of His disciples, exposes the false apostle in their circle. He reminds them of the prophecy of such an apostate in John 13:18. You may read some of the prophecies about Judas in Psalm 41:9; Psalm 55:12-14, and Zechariah 11:12, 13. Because God knew about Judas centuries before, did not remove any obligation from Judas for his actions. Jesus already knew he was a devil, John 6:70, and a thief, John 12:6, and a betrayer, John 6:71. Jesus Christ told His disciples about Judas before it happened that they might know He was God. "Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he."

The second reason Jesus Christ told His disciples about Judas was to strengthen them as apostles, after the betrayal by Judas. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me." (John 13:20). The disciples of Jesus Christ are personal ambassadors or representatives of Jesus Christ. (2 Cor. 5:20). Satan always has tares in the wheat. There have always been hypocrites among God's people, but that should not discredit the true. It is better to spend a few years in church with a few hypocrites than spend eternity in Hell with all of them.

Hypocrites trouble the spirit of Jesus

Christ, John 13:21, and bring perplexity to the true saints of Christ. (John 13:22-25). Such a consideration should cause all of us to search ourselves to make sure we are not reprobates. (2 Cor. 13:5).

Jesus had placed Judas in a seat of honor to receive the initial sop of the pass-over. (John 13:26). This following the washing of his feet by Jesus Christ reminds us that Judas had every opportunity to repent and do right. Our Lord dealt with him in love and mercy even unto the end. This act of love and honor drove Judas further away. "And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly." (John 13:27). Those who become engaged to sin, often become married to Satan. Judas had the best of example, teaching, and opportunity, but sold his soul for eternity to Satan.

The rest of the disciples were ignorant of what Judas was doing. (John 13:28). They thought he was leaving to labor as a servant to meet their needs or the needs of the poor. (John 13:29). Judas receiving the sop of honor, rejected the light of the world, and departed into the darkness of eternal night. "He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night." (John 13:30). Is Jesus Christ or Satan your Lord and master today???

Wind of FAITH

Sunday Jeremiah 29:1-14	Wednesday Matthew 22:1-22

Tuesday Joel 2:12-32	Friday Mark 10:17-31
	Saturday Luke 12:1-12

Old-timers used to rely on this mill. This mill used to depend on the right wind.

Despite man's most valiant efforts the wheel was frequently at a standstill. What then? Waiting, waiting, waiting! What patience they must have learned—only faith sustained them. The wind will blow again.

The patient life also requires a foundation of faith. It can come early or late, slowly or fast.

If you lack the necessary faith to fulfill your life's needs, turn to the Church. The wind will blow again.

Toxic Waste

South Carolina officials, agreeing to continue taking low level radioactive wastes from Michigan on an interim basis, have given notice to bar wastes from all seven states in the midwest compact if procedures to establish a new site are not resumed.

Washington, the other state handling wastes from Michigan, also agreed to resume shipments pending further discussion by the various governors at the next National Governors' Association meeting of issues raised by Governor James J. Blanchard when he ordered site work halted on January 31.

The governing board of the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control found Michigan not in compliance with the federal waste law, set a March 1 deadline to bar wastes from Michigan and an April 1 deadline to bar wastes from the other six states in the midwest compact.

The interim agreement to continue shipments does not resolve the basic dispute on national radioactive waste laws, which Blanchard demanded he changed to reduce the number of sites and put more emphasis on criteria that would make it unlikely Michigan would host one of the sites.

State officials have received a letter from Washington terminating the action which had rescinded the waste disposal agreement there.

James Cleary, commissioner of the Low Level Radioactive

Waste Authority, said the notice to the other compact states is a "positive" move because it puts additional pressure on them to respond to Blanchard's concerns.

He said the deadlines set by South Carolina "gives us a chance to sit down and talk about the whole thing."

At least two governors from other states had previously indicated a willingness to work with Blanchard, but want to be involved on exactly what changes are sought at the federal level.

The other midwest compact states are Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Cleary acknowledged the "odds are against" revising the federal law at this stage, but added, "The only way to find out is to give it a try. We are looking for ways to see if we can reach our goal of a reduced number of sites."

While the governor has not expressly declared Michigan should be off limits for one of those sites, Cleary said if the criteria is based on geographic location and less risk, the state would not be selected.

South Carolina Governor Carroll Campbell views the upcoming meeting at the NGA as a chance to get more information on Michigan's intent, but he is "not interested in supporting any course of action that would undermine the compact agreements," said his press secretary Tucker Askew.

He said the governor is concerned about

Michigan's course of action.

The board said Michigan could continue sending wastes to South Carolina if it reinstated the siting process and the other states could continue shipping their wastes if Michigan is out of compliance with federal law and they do not provide an acceptable alternative, identify a host state with authority to develop a site, make significant progress towards development of a siting process, or join another compact.

The board found the midwest compact is not complying with federal law because it does not at the time have a host state that meets requirements for developing a site.

Warren Hardy, spokesman for the board, said the time delay and the conditions were an effort to "come up with a satisfactory resolution without an immediate ban."

Michigan officials maintain they have not yet violated any requirements of the act, and would not be in violation until this summer.

Cleary said the delay until the shutdown gives an opportunity for the governors to discuss the situation and for those who generate wastes in Michigan to find alternatives for disposal if an agreement is not reached.

If the governors are unable to reach some understanding at the end of the month, he said one of Michigan's options is a lawsuit to maintain access to the dump sites.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

The long awaited re-write of the Michigan Game Law is now complete and will be in effect on April 1, 1989. There are several changes in the law, known as the Wildlife Conservation Act, which are of immediate concern.

All firearms, when transported or possessed in or upon a vehicle, will be required to be unloaded and enclosed in a case or in the trunk. Having a firearm "broken down" will no longer be legal. Further, even if a firearm is transported inaccessible to the occupants of the vehicle, it will have to be enclosed in a case. The bed of a pickup truck for example. The same is true for a bow - unstrung, in a case or in the trunk.

The Safety Zone is still within 150 yards of an occupied dwelling, cabin, etc. You must have permission to hunt or discharge a weapon within the safety zone of another - even if you are still on your own property. Under an Attorney General's opinion, target practice on one's own property would be legal, if not done in a careless or reckless manner.

The section concerned with the use of artificial lights has been modified. There is no longer allowance for use of an artificial light with an inaccessible weapon for the period one hour after the close of hunting. No weapons of any kind may be involved when an artificial light is being used. Failure to stop upon the signal of an officer will result in a mandatory five days in jail.

The penalties continue to be high - generally $50.00 - $500 plus court costs and/or jail time. Some violations are much more - up to $5,000 fine plus costs and 90 days to a year in jail for violations involving moose.

Restitution for illegally taken or possessed game also continues high - $1500 for a moose, elk, hawk, bear, eagle or an endangered species; $1000 for a deer, owl or wild turkey. A major change lowers mandatory restitution for other game animals. Formerly, they were $500. Under the new law, a sliding scale of $100-$500 each may be assessed at the discretion of the judge.

... about your Social Security

Phyllis Meyer, Resident Representative for the Social Security Administration in Cadillac, is retiring March 2, 1989. Meyer's Federal career has included assignments in several foreign countries, and Chicago, prior to opening the Cadillac office for Social Security in 1976.

Since that time, she has operated the local office, at 117 W. Cass, and provided Social Security services to the residents of Wexford, Missaukee, and Crawford Counties.

In announcing Meyer's retirement, Len Connolly, District Manager for Social Security in Traverse City, stated that on an interim basis, the Cadillac office will be staffed with employees traveling from the Traverse City office.

Although the office will continue to be open on Monday and Wednesday, and on Thursday morning, people in this area planning to contact Social Security are urged to conduct their business by telephone. Toll-free phone service is now available 24-hours a day, Connolly stated. The number is 800-234-5554 (or 234-5772). Operators are available from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. each business day, with a message service at all other times.

Verse or Worse

By Joseph D. Murphy

Spring Rituals

As the warming sun and longer days
Herald the coming of spring
We know there are spring rituals
The warming days are sure to bring.

Young lads dig out their marbles
And when the first dry spots appear
They take up their marble games
Where they left off last year.

The little girls find jumping rope
A great way to spend their day
With hearts light as a feather
Singing songs so bright and gay.

Soon roller skates and bicycles appear
As the streets are melted bare
A game of tag or hide and seek Takes place here and there.

It's the time for digging worms
As fishing season draws near
This year they'll get that big one
That eluded them last year.

The older boys fancy turns to love
And those girls they used to hate
Now hear them haw and stammer
As they ask them for a date.

I watch those rituals of spring
With a heart that's full of joy
Glad the young still practice the rituals
Just as I did as a boy.

Poet's Corner

"My Prince Charming"

Didn't ride a white horse
nor wear shining armor
But he is the most handsome of any Prince
He is sweeter than any sugarplum.

My Prince is more sexy than any Playboy pin up
He is more loveable and hugable than any old teddy bear.

My Prince is honest and caring
His smile tells my he's happy
He may seem crazy and nutty
but he's really an angel at heart
He is the kindest and most gentle Prince in the world
He is a Special Prince
Because he is mine.

Your Week Ahead Horoscope

Forecast Period: 3/19 - 3/25/89

ARIES

Mar. 21-Apr. 19

Put more energy into education or charitable enterprises. Work with the favorable elements and much can be accomplished.

TAURUS

Apr. 20-May 20

Greater financial and professional gain can be realized if you direct your efforts to that goal.

GEMINI

May 21-June 20

Avoid taking too much for granted in your relationships. Be tolerant of the thoughts and feelings of partner.

CANCER

June 21-July 22

Be discriminating when it comes to charitable deeds. Others may play on your sympathies and find you a "soft touch."

LEO

July 23-Aug. 22

The happiness and well-being of others is of genuine concern to you. Group activities increase your awareness of society's weaknesses.

VIRGO

Aug. 23-Sept. 22

A driving ambition for wealth and status is good—to a point. A position of trust brings responsibility.

LIBRA

Sept. 23-Oct. 22

Transits favor study at a higher level. Spiritual or cultural pursuits can unlock the door to another way of life.

SCORPIO

Oct. 23-Nov. 21

You may find yourself actively engaged in raising funds for education or charitable institutions. Good record keeping is vital.

SAGITTARIUS

Nov. 22-Dec. 21

A friendly, cooperative approach in relationships with mate or partner brings forth a similar response from others.

CAPRICORN

Dec. 22-Jan. 19

There's a lot of nervous energy to be directed at improving conditions at work. Drive in the right direction.

AQUARIUS

Jan. 20-Feb. 18

Reasonable financial investments and speculations will probably do well. Carried to excess, it points to problems.

PISCES

Feb. 19-Mar. 20

Beautifying the home environment brings pleasure to the doer, as well as those who share in the results.

Recipes

By Phyllis Brummer

If you are planning to serve Irish Stew on St. Patrick's Day, here is the traditional accompaniment.

Irish Soda Bread

1 1/2 c. flour
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. soda
2 tsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. baking powder
3 c. whole wheat flour
1 tbsp. margarine or bacon fat
1 1/2 c. buttermilk

Sift together the flour, salt, soda, sugar and baking powder. Stir in wheat flour. Add butter or margarine and cut in with pastry blender. Make a well in center and add buttermilk. Mix with a knife, enough to make a soft dough. Form with floured hands into a round shape and place smooth side up on lightly-floured baking sheet. Cut a deep cross on top, letting cuts go over side of the bread to allow the bread to rise evenly and bake without splitting the crust. Bake at 450° for 45 minutes, or until a rich brown. When almost cool, wrap in towel for a tender crust.

For glazing your Easter ham, pour a cup of orange juice in the pan to mix with the meat juices and melt a cup of hot pepper jelly to baste the ham. Another idea is to put a cup of madeira wine in the pan and combine 2/3 cup of fruit preserves, such as apricot, cherry or orange marmalade, and 1/2 cup Dijon mustard for the glaze. If you have a small family or don't wish to have ham leftovers, try this pork tenderloin.

Honey Sesame Tenderloin

1 whole pork tenderloin
1/2 c. soy sauce
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 tbsp. grated fresh ginger or 1 tsp. dry ginger
1 tbsp. sesame oil
1/4 c. honey
2 tbsp. brown sugar
4 tbsp. sesame seed

Combine soy sauce, garlic, ginger, sesame oil and pork in plastic bag and marinate two hours at room temperature. Remove pork and pat dry. Mix honey and brown sugar in one plate and place sesame seeds on another. Roll pork in honey mixture, coating well, then roll in sesame seeds. Roast at 375° for 20-30 minutes or until meat thermometer registers 160°. Slice thinly to serve.

In almost any publication on food you will find a recipe for the chocolate chip cookie, and here is yet another. This one was grand prize winner among 2,600 entries in a contest sponsored by a western Massachusetts Inn.

Double Chocolate Chip Cookies

1 1/2 c. flour
1/4 tsp. baking soda
2 sticks unsalted butter
1 c. sugar
1/2 c. dark brown sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 large egg
1/2 c. unsweetened cocoa
2 tbsp. milk
1 c. (5 oz.) chopped walnuts
1 c. (8 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate chips

Combine flour and soda. Cream butter, sugars and vanilla until light and fluffy. Whisk in the egg. Stir in cocoa and milk. Fold in flour mixture, walnuts and chocolate chips. Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls on non-stick baking sheet and bake about 12 minutes at 350°. Cool about 5 minutes before removing cookies from sheets.

Hard-cooked Easter eggs can be combined with fruits or vegetables to make a nutritious salad. Instead of mayonnaise, bind the ingredients with sour cream, process cheese spread thinned with milk, plain or lemon-flavored yogurt, pureed cream-style cottage cheese or cream cheese thinned with milk. Stir in bean sprouts, apples, avocados, chilled green beans, any kind of cooked pasta, potatoes, or rice, canned peas or whole kernel corn, artichoke hearts, sunflower or other seeds, water chestnuts, cucumbers, drained canned garbanzo, kidney or pinto beans, chopped broccoli or cauliflower.

Commission Order - CFI-104.89A

(Under the authority of Act 230 of the Public Acts of 1925, as amended)

Statewide Trout and Salmon Regulations

Under the authority of Act 230 of the Public Acts of 1925, as amended, being sections 300.1 to 300.5 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, the Natural Resources Commission, at its February 10, 1989, meeting, ordered that for a period of four years:

The open season on lake trout in Lake Huron and its tributary streams and in Lake Michigan and its tributary streams shall be from May 1 through Labor Day.

On the Great Lakes and connecting waters the size limit for trout and salmon shall be 10" and the possession limit shall be 5 fish singly or in combination but no more than 3 of any one species except pink salmon nor more than 2 lake trout or splake from Lake Michigan. A bonus of 5 pink salmon may be taken from the St. Mary's River from the last Saturday in April through September 30.

On inland lakes the size limit on trout and salmon shall be 10" and the possession limit shall be 5 in any combination. On streams from the last Saturday in April to September 30 the size limit on trout and salmon shall be 7" in the Upper Peninsula and 8" in the Lower Peninsula and the possession limit shall be 10 in any combination but no more than 3 over 16" unless they are pink salmon; at all other times of the year on streams open to extended trout and salmon fishing the size limit shall be 16" and the possession limit shall be 3 trout or salmon in any combination.

This order modifies the Commission order entitled "Statewide Trout and Salmon Regulations," effective April 1, 1988 and assigned number CFI-104.88.

This order shall take effect on April 1, 1989, and shall remain effective through March 31, 1993.

Daniels Den Presents Lyle, Linda Dowling

On March 17, Lyle and Linda Dowling will be featured at Daniels Den. They sing and Lyle accompanies them on the guitar to many of the popular Gospel songs. They are well known in the area for their talent and have started many of the W.P.H.N. Concerts.

St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated with a cake, and there will be refreshments available as usual. Bring the family and come for good music and fellowship.

with the arrival of spring comes the annual growing season, a time for planting. When making your plans for your garden this year, include planting trees. Fill up those empty spaces in a yard and at the same time provide food and shelter for song birds and other wildlife.

Shade your home from the summer sun or use trees to block that cold winter wind.

Do you have a non-productive crop field? Plant it to trees for a future investment for you and your family. We've all been hearing about the growing concerns over the quality of our air and water.

Planting trees is one way we all can be a part of the solution.

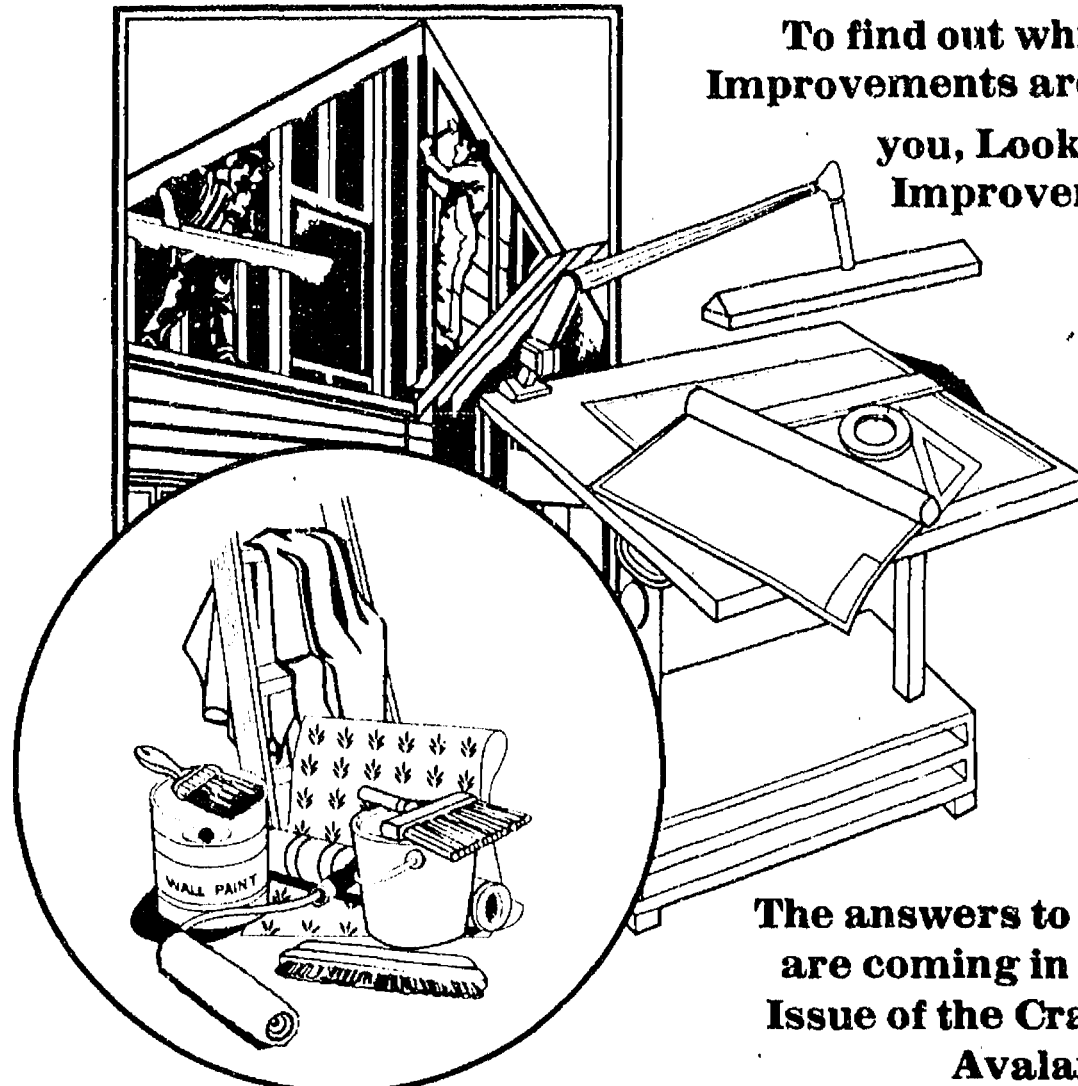

Your soil and water conservation district can provide you with a large variety of species for every need and a staff to provide the technical knowledge to help ensure a successful planting. A government cost-share program is available for up to 75% reimbursement of the cost for planting and purchasing trees. To see if you would qualify for this program, or to find out more information about planting and ordering trees, call 275-5231 or stop by our office at 409 Lake Street, Roscommon.

Eye Care News

Richard P. Ferrigan
Certified Optician

Q. It only took my neighbor ten minutes to get her eyes examined. I spent almost an hour and paid ten dollars more. Why?

A. Generally, it takes from 30 to 60 minutes for an Optometrist to give you all the tests needed to examine your eyes thoroughly for health and vision problems. The results of the basic examination may call for additional tests. This will keep you in the examination chair longer and sometimes add to your cost. Extra time may also be involved if you have special occupational vision needs or require a special lens design. It also takes more time and tests to determine a contact lens prescription. Ask your optometrist in advance approximately how long your examination will take. Your eyes and vision can be shortchanged by an examination that cuts corners. Your vision is too precious to risk.
